Katie O'Reilly '89, Co-President and Culinary Artist of Kenmare Catering and Events, has launched Katie O's Food Carnival website.

Katie's spiritual, insightful and often comical blogs are great entertainment for all you foodies out there, as well as for all those who like a little weekly dose of amusing antidotes, about people and their relationship with that all important ingredient of life – food. Her website also features mouthwatering pictures of her culinary designs, her background and experiences in the food industry, and exciting opportunities to attend interactive events and try her food!

Katie Hogan '02, a long-serving member of the Obama team, will become the new chief of Organizing for Action, the Chicago-based offshoot of the Obama presidential campaigns that will likely have a role in his post-presidency.

Hogan's career arc with Obama started when she joined his political operation in February 2007, the week before the official kick-off of his first campaign for the White House. READ FULL ARTICLE

Dr. Darren Wethers '80 was recently featured in Maricopa County Medical Society Round-up. He is on the cover with his family and you can read the entire article starting on page 21. CLICK HERE to read more.
